MHRA congratulates Air Malta

MHRA would like to congratulate Air Malta on obtaining 3rd place ranking from among the best short-haul airlines flying out of UK. This came out from a passenger satisfaction survey conducted by the leading British Magazine – Which? Holiday – a quarterly publication designed to provide practical travel advice and inspirational ideas.

“This is certainly a tribute to all the hard work Air Malta management and staff put in to ensure that our national airline strives towards excellence and sustainability” commented MHRA President George Micallef. “Air Malta is an integral part of our tourism product and Air Malta’s success is our success too”.
