MHRA salutes Guido de Marco

The MHRA Council would like to publicly express its sorrow on the demise of President Emeritus Prof. Dr. Guido de Marco on Thursday afternoon.

Prof. de Marco was a formidable statesman who dedicated most of his life to Maltese politics and who was instrumental to Malta's social and economic progress achieved over the years. He showed determination and unwavering principles in every appointment bestowed on him over the years, which earned him admiration and recognition also at the international level.

He will ever be remembered for his distinctive qualities, his tenacity and skills of persuasion. Prof. de Marco was indeed an inspiration to many, as could be seen by the many tributes expressed by people from all walks of life. He excelled as a politician, an academic, a jurist, inspiring author and a dedicated family man.

Prof. de Marco will go down in history as a giant of Maltese politics.

The MHRA extends its condolences to the members of his family.
